Parent/Teacher Communication Through E-Mail

Although e-mail has become a valuable communication tool, it is important to remember that it is not always a completely secure and confidential method of communication. We would like to make e-mail available as another possible way for parents to communicate with their child's teacher when appropriate. We are, however, concerned about maintaining privacy laws, especially as they relate to student records. We will not send any student record information via e-mail. If your e-mail address changes, you are required to fill out and sign an updated form before we send information to the new e-mail address.

_____ Yes, I give permission for general information regarding my child to be sent to me via e-mail, at the following e-mail address:
