

A Peek at Our Week

Mrs. Gilson's Kindergarten

September 28, 2017

I am sending my newsletter home a day early this week, because I will be out of the classroom tomorrow and Monday. Mrs. Gordon will be there along with a substitute. (My husband and I are traveling to Texas to visit our son and daughter in law who recently bought a home there.)

We had a great time at Whitehouse even though it was REALLY hot! We squeezed everything we needed to see, into a little over an hour! Our next adventure.....THE PUMPKIN FARM!!! The kiddos really love riding the bus and can't wait to do it again☺.

We visited the Sisters at the Motherhouse yesterday. We go there twice a month as part of our Religion curriculum and we sing songs together. They SOOO look forward to our visits... and our Kindergarteners love visiting them as well.

On Monday, Mrs. Gordon is sending invitations home for our Grandparents/Special Persons Day Program. Please make sure to check your child's folder! A sign- up sheet will be posted outside of my classroom for refreshment donations.....please stop in to sign up!

In Reading this week, we worked on letters T-X. Our new popcorn word this week was THE... and next week we will learn AND. Please practice all flashcards that were sent home. I also introduced the color word GREEN! They are starting to put these words together to read sentences and wow.....are they proud of themselves!!! We are also learning reading strategies such as looking at the illustration to help us figure out the words in a story. It won't be long before they are sounding words out and decoding! This week we discussed author, illustrator, character, sequencing a story, continuation of nouns, and we touched on synonyms which will be continued throughout the year.

In Math we are working in our ten frames and finding all the different ways to make 7 and 8. They are doing great, thank you for helping at home!

In Science we are discussing AUTUMN and the seasons and in Religion, we are discussing Noah and The Ark!! I'll see you Tuesday...have a great weekend!!